

Detlef Daues

67 years old

CEO of V-LINE EUROPE GmbH, Germany, President of Varioline Spare Parts Services Inc., Wall Township, New Jersey, USA and founder of the The V-LINE Group of Companies.

Detlef Daues has 40 years 'hands on' experience in international cross border MRO and capital equipment spares procurement.

Resume

1967-1970 apprenticeship Messrs. H&S Hanover a later Krupp Steel merger

1970-1972 clerk at the same company

1972-1978 Export Manager Messrs. Wiedemann Sarstedt

1978-1979 General Manager and Co-owner Alpha-Metal Hanover

1979-1989 Managing Director and Co-owner Varioline Handelsges.mbH Hanover

In 1989 he founded V-LINE Europe Export Marketing GmbH Sehnde (now V-LINE EUROPE GmbH) of which Detlef Daues is sole owner.

Detlef has overall management responsibilities for all V-LINE Group companies including overseeing/developing trading and export activities and marketing, sales and customer support operations for the cross border procurement services offered to a wide range of industrial and process plants in Europe, Asia and the Americas.

In addition, he has special interest and involvement in the transfer of new technology and cost saving techniques including e-procurement, B2B for MRO supply chain management to industrial and process plant clients/prospects in the Middle East and Central/South American regions.

Detlef Daues is a German citizen and was educated and trained in Germany. He is a graduate of the Harvard Business School Owner President Management program in 1998.

He serves on the board of the Foreign Economy Panel of the Hanover Chamber of Commerce.

Ernst & Young awarded him as Entrepreneur of the Year in September 2012.

Detlef is married with 2 children.