

ZEYAD KHOSHAIM

- Zeyad is a senior GCC BDI External Faculty member
- He is the Managing Partner of Khoshaim & Associates and is a leading lawyer in Saudi Arabia who specializes in advising corporate multinationals in structuring and financing major projects, joint ventures, mergers, and acquisitions in Saudi Arabia. For over fifteen years, he has advised and led on some of Saudi Arabia's most high profile energy, petrochemical and healthcare related projects.
- Zeyad leads the corporate, capital markets and dispute resolution teams in Riyadh, and has advised on landmark debt and equity capital markets transactions, litigated in court and arbitration, and advised on public mergers and acquisitions.
- Zeyad was a member of the CMA's Advisory Committee helping to shape the regulatory framework for corporate governance and capital markets. He has been invited to speak on various topics, including corporate governance matters, and has participated in capital markets symposiums. He was also a founding board member of the Saudi Arabian Commercial Arbitration Center.
- Zeyad obtained his Bachelor of Engineering degree from Vanderbilt University, his Doctor of Jurisprudence from Vanderbilt University Law School and has an Executive Management of Law Firms Certificate from Harvard Law School